Additional Information

Scholarship and grant recipients must meet GIA's admissions requirements in order to be admitted to GIA courses and programs. For students enrolling in eLearning courses, or on campus courses, programs or lab classes at GIA's Carlsbad campus, please carefully review the admissions policy in the GIA Education Catalog – Carlsbad Campus. For students enrolling in on campus courses, programs or lab classes at GIA's New York campus, please carefully review the admissions policy in the GIA Education Catalog – New York Campus.

If a student drops a course or program or withdraws from GIA, or if the funding expiration date is reached, unused funds will remain on Funder's corporate account and are available for refund, or to be applied to another GIA expense as directed by Funder in writing.

Due to privacy constraints, GIA is not able to share student grades or progress with any third party (including Funder) unless permission to disclose this information is provided by the student in writing.

For assistance in completing this form or questions about how to use the funds, please contact the Student Financial Office at financialaid@gia.edu or +1 760 603 4005. For questions about student admissions, please contact GIA Admissions at admissions@gia.edu or +1 760 603 4001.
